

The Bethlehem Township School District's Department of Special Services has extended an invitation to parents of students with Special Needs from the Flemington-Raritan School District to attend the following presentation:

HOMework WITHOUT TEARS

Do you have nightly battles over homework? Does it take hours to get homework finished? Does it sometimes turn into tears for your children and yourself? Want to learn strategies to motivate your children to do homework and succeed in school?

Come join the Bethlehem Township School District, Department of Special Services as Debra Baumann gives a workshop on how homework can and should be done without tears.

When: November 14th from 7pm-8pm OR November 15th from 1pm-2pm

Where: Thomas B Conley Elementary School in the music room

940 Iron Bridge Road, Asbury , NJ 08802 (908) 537-4044

Please RSVP by November 9th by either returning the bottom portion of this flyer to your child's teacher or emailing Sally Klemm at sklemm@btschools.org

 Please indicate which date you will be attending in your email

 Child care will not be provided

_____ Yes, I will be attending the November 14th workshop at 7pm

_____ Yes, I will be attending the November 15th workshop at 1 pm

Name _____

Number of people attending from your family _____