

December

Recognize our Connectedness

Understand how our relationships with our past, our planet, and each other shape our wellbeing.

By: National Education Association
Published: 07/31/2023

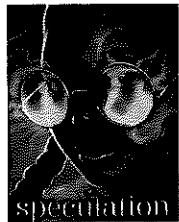

Elementary

In this picture book adaptation of her iconic poem, the 23rd U.S. Poet Laureate invites readers to consider the connections between themselves and their family, community, and the world.

Click HERE for the link to lessons, activities and alternate titles.

Middle Grades (5-8)

While staying with her grandparents in the summer of 1962, ten-year-old Winna discovers a pair of magical spectacles that reveal both the friendly ghosts of her African American ancestors and a dangerous family curse.

Click HERE for the link to lessons, activities, and alternate titles.