

FRSD Autism Awareness Spirit Week

April 15 – 19, 2024

April is Autism Awareness Month. Join FRSD in celebrating Autism Awareness Month with a Spirit Week!

“Team Up for Autism” – Monday, April 15

Wear your favorite team jersey to show acceptance and support from everyone.

“We Blend Together” – Tuesday, April 16

Wear Tie Dye / Rainbow to celebrate the beauty in the diverse spectrum of the human mind.

“Sensory Friendly” – Wednesday, April 17

Wear Comfortable Clothes to show support for sensory sensitivities.

“Show Your Passion” – Thursday, April 18

Dress to show something you love. One characteristic of autism is to show incredible focused passion for topics of interest.

“Go Blue” – Friday, April 19

Wear Blue to show your acceptance of individuals with autism. Blue is the primary color designated for autism awareness.

Autism is a complex developmental disability which primarily affects an individual's ability with social interaction and communication.

- About 1 in 44 children nationwide have autism.
