It is finally starting to look like May this week!

As we move into the final stretch of the school year, I want to make you aware that Marking Period 3 Progress Reports for Speech-language goals have been shared on the Parent Portal of Genesis. If you have any issues viewing them, please let me know!

I am starting to put together speech packets for the students to complete over the summer! Of course there will be an exciting prize for those who choose to do it!

Fun ideas to practice speech and language skills at home this month...

| Have your child pick a favorite book. Read 5 pages each night. Listen specifically for one target sound! | Encourage your child to be "conversation captain" at dinner. Let them think of different conversation topics to engage the whole family! | Encourage your child to join you in a spring time activity: baking/cooking, gardening, riding a bike, etc. Afterwards, have your child explain the sequence of steps you took (i.e., first, next, last...) | Encourage your child to use figurative language to describe the changes in May!"The bunnies are as fast as lightning!" |
