BOARD RECOGNITIONS

The following students and staff were recognized by the Board of Education:

- Copper Hill School Grade 4 student Rishubh Thaper has been selected as Flemington-Raritan’s Distinguished Student for 2010. The Distinguished Student Award Program is designed to recognize students whose performance in school and community best reflects the attitudes necessary for success in academic, business and life settings. Congratulations, Rishubh!
- Robert Hunter School Grade 1 student Maxine Cox was selected as one of 30 students whose artwork was chosen for an exhibit sponsored by the NJPAC and the Art Educators of NJ to celebrate the production of “The Color Purple”. Maxine’s work was among 200 entries that featured 2-D artwork with purple as the main theme. Maxine was nominated for recognition by art teacher Marie Corfield. Congratulations, Maxine!
- J. P. Case Middle School students Jeremy Shum and Andrew Sheneman were selected to the Central Jersey Intermediate Regional Band and Orchestra. Jeremy plays violin and Andrew plays the trombone. The two were selected by competitive audition from over 800 students. The concert was held on March 7. The students were nominated for recognition by the music department at J. P. Case Middle School. Congratulations Jeremy and Andrew!
- J. P. Case Middle School student Emily Torgerson recently participated in the National Young Leaders State Conference. The conference is designed to instruct and enrich promising students in a hands-on, experiential atmosphere while preparing them for a lifetime of leadership. She was nominated for recognition by School Counselor Megan O'Brien. Congratulations, Emily!

- Below are this year's winners of our district's annual Safety Poster Contest. This year's theme was ways to prevent spreading germs in school. Each winner received a $50 U.S. savings bond. Congratulations to:
  - 1st grade – Kevin Minch – Francis A. Desmares School
  - 2nd grade – Natalie Evans – Robert Hunter School
  - 3rd grade – Jordyn Rosenheim – Copper Hill School
  - 4th grade – Marissa Carvelli – Copper Hill School
  - 5th grade – Brianna Albrecht – Reading-Fleming Intermediate School
  - 6th grade – Eva Lin Feindt – Reading-Fleming Intermediate School
  - 7th grade – Alberto Chicas – J. P. Case Middle School
  - 8th grade – Meagan Robichaud – J. P. Case Middle School
- Recipients of Governor's Teacher Recognition/Educational Services Professional Program awards are:
  - Linda Alsop, Gifted and Talented Math Teacher at Copper Hill
  - Daniel DeCanio, Grade 6 Social Studies at Reading-Fleming Intermediate
  - Deborah Ricard, Gifted and Talented Math Teacher at Robert Hunter
  - Michele Tonge, Gifted and Talented Math Teacher at Francis A. Desmares
  - Suzanne Galletta, Grade 1 Teacher at Barley Sheaf
  - Sally Treonze, Family and Consumer Science Teacher at J. P. Case

Recipients were chosen based on their outstanding performance. The rationale for the program is based on the premise that teaching excellence is one of the most significant factors impacting student achievement and the quality of public schools. Congratulations, teachers!
